Subject: Mr. Capogrosso

On Tuesday June 9, 2009 at approximately 9:45 AM I called the next customer to my counter. The motorist was accompanied by Michael, who is the assistant of Mr. Capogrosso, who is one of the lawyers who represents motorists at their hearings here at Brooklyn South. The motorist handed me her drivers' license and as I was manufacturing a substitute ticket for the motorist, Michael called Mr. Capogrosso over to my window. Mr. Capogrosso, thinking there was a problem approached my counter and aggressively and belligerently began yelling at me. I assured him that there was no problem and that I had already printed the ticket for his client, but at that point he was already out of control and continued yelling, cursing and insulting me. The supervisors, Geri, Danielle and John all came out to see what the commotion was and to resolve the situation, but he refused to listen to reason or leave my counter. I then went into the back office because I felt threatened and was afraid for my safety. Finally one of the supervisors calmed him down and he moved away from my counter. Throughout the day Mr. Capogrosso was taunting me. He would walk past my station making comments and smirking at me.

I can no longer interact with Mr. Capogrosso at the service counter because I fear for my safety. On many occasions I have observed him display his aggressive behavior towards my co-workers, his clients, the other attorneys and their assistants. He even went so far as to assault a female assistant who works for another lawyer.

His aggressive behavior has steadily progressed within the past few months. I no longer feel comfortable at my place of employment because of this individual's behavior and I wish to go on record in the event of any future conflicts.
